The Seniors Of Red Bank High School
Present

Chattanooga
Tennessee

Oh, Red Bank High to thee we sing, to thee our hearts acclaim.
Our love for thee, our loyalty,
shall be our constant aim.
Thy lofty aims directed us to do
our very best.
From every milestone in the road to follow thy behest.

Oh, Red Bank High, Dear Red Bank High,
Our love for thee shall never die,
Dear Red Bank, Red Bank High.

Foreword

It has been the goal of this year's Roar Staff to present the life of Red Bank High School in the year 1957. Our remembrances must include not only the football and basketball games, the parties and dances, the clubs but also the quizzes, exams, and the never-ending homework. In looking backward, however, we can easily see that the good more than exceeds the bad. Because we, as young men and women, are living in an age of scientific advances, we wish to look forward and, therefore, have chosen "A Trip in Outer Space" as the theme of this edition of the ROAR.

Dedication

Thomas Gooden

To Mr. Thomas Gooden as an expression of our appreciation for his never ceasing service to our school, his untiring patience, his fairness in all matters, his interest in our problems no matter how small, his work with the junior-high athletics, and his unchangeable good nature, we, the Roar Staff of nineteen-hundred and fifty-seven do hereby dedicate this yearbook.

CREED

We are the Future Homemakers of America,
We face the future with warm courage and high hope.
For we have the clear consciousness of seeking
Old and precious values.
For we are the builders of homes,
Homes for America's future,
Homes which will have the expression of everything
That is good and fair;
Homes where truth and love and security and faith
Will be realities, not dreams,
We are the Future Homemakers of America
We face the future with warm courage
And high hope.

Class Poem

"STEPPING - STONES"

Life is full of stepping-stones,
Goals to be achieved;
And for the few who surpass these goals
Honors to be received.

Now as we turn our thoughts to the past
And look toward the years gone by,
We see the many stepping-stones
We've passed here at Red Bank High.

As our graduation approaches,
The stepping-stone into life,
We must go out and face the world,
Its problems and its strife.

We each will try our very best
As we go our separate ways
To lighten the load on the shoulders of others
In order to brighten their days.

To you, the Class of Fifty-Seven,
With your friendship warm and true,
I hope success will come your way
In everything you do.

I hope the future will unfold
Whatever you would win.
I hope you find your pot of gold;
I hope your ship comes in.

And now as we cross those stepping-stones
And launch out upon life's sea,
Let's remember to light that one little candle
And a brighter world there will be.

— Kay McMillan.

Class History

The time is coming when our years together at Red Bank High School will be only a memory. Already a lot of us are thinking nostalgically of them.

As I glance back at this Class of 1957, I see 165 seventh graders fighting their way to register for the coming year. Service Club members are doing their best to keep everyone in line and were trying to help in any way they could. It seemed to us that they were there just to be pushed out of the way so that we could get where we were going.

I remember our first class meeting. We were very excited because we were about to elect our first class officers. By the end of that meeting we had elected Tommy Watts as our President. Other officers were: Vice President—Bobby Bowling, Secretary—Marcia Kay Emerson, and Treasurer—Carolyn Jo Sprayberry. To work with these four we selected Mrs. Thomas and Mrs. Landers.

We were extremely proud of our class. During this year one of our group, Gail Terwilliger, was elected as an acrobatic majorette.

After we had registered for the eighth grade, we started our regular work again. We had almost learned how to get our talking done, make our usual disturbance in the halls, and get to class in the five minutes allotted to us.

The time finally came to have that year's first class meeting. Then we elected Carolyn Jo Sprayberry as President; Shirley Greer, Vice President; Tommy Watts, Secretary; and Jerry Cecere, Treasurer. As sponsors we elected Miss Masterson, Miss McKenney, and Mr. Calfee.

In this same year we had basketball, baseball, and football teams that were tops in their class. All three of these teams were the champs of the Chattanooga area. The coaches were: basketball—Mr. Carlos Springfield, baseball—Mr. Bob Gorham, and football—Mr. Jim Mayfield.

When we came back from our summer vacation to enter our first real high school year, the Class of '57 was probably very unpopular with Mrs. Smith, the head of our school bank, for we were six cents "in the hole." When our group was called together to be organized, we were quite successful with our business. The class elected Miss Hunter and Mr. Springfield as our sponsors. Our class officers were: President—Tommy Watts; Vice President—Travis Billingsley; Secretary—Crawford Bean; and Treasurer—Calvin Sivley.

Our class really began to take part in school activities during this year. For the first time we elected superlatives, and they were: Most Popular—Shirley Greer and Tommy Watts, and Best All Around—Gail Terwilliger and Miles Springfield. Our representative in the Homecoming Court was Shirley Greer. Girls elected Junior High Cheerleaders from our class were Kay McMillan and Marcia Kay Emerson. However, because you have to be a sophomore to participate in Senior High Activities, we still held membership in Junior High clubs. On the whole, we thoroughly fulfilled the old saying about being "green Freshmen."

After having had a full summer, we returned to our Alma Mater. Most of us buckled down to work, because we were now able to realize what our high school years would mean. For our class leaders we selected: President—Travis Billingsley; Vice President—Patty Lauper; Secretary—Melva Jean Lindsey; and, Treasurer—Tommy Watts. Our sponsors were Mr. Lewis and Mr. Edwards.

During the year we had many more activities, for at last we were classified as "senior high." Kendra Trimble was elected our representative in the Homecoming Court. Our class superlatives were: Most Popular—Gail Terwilliger and Tommy Watts, and Best All Around—Carolyn Jo Sprayberry and Kenneth Smith. We sponsored the Senior-Faculty basketball game and also had a picnic at Lake Winnepesauka at the end of the year. When we got our final report cards on the last day of that year, some of us were afraid to look. But, hoping to become "mighty" Juniors, we all did.

Little did we know that in our Junior year we would be the richest class in the school. It really felt good. Those who helped to make it possible were Mrs. Taylor and Mr. Wolfe, our class sponsors. The leaders of our class this year were Paul Walker, Carolyn Jo Sprayberry, Richard Johnson, and Kenneth Smith. Elected as Most Popular were Tommy Watts and Shirley Greer. Kenneth Smith and Carolyn Jo Sprayberry were elected as Best All Around. Judy Long was our Homecoming Court representative.

Class History

Under the guidance of our sponsors we put on the first carnival at Red Bank High School. Among our other projects was the Junior Play, "You Can't Take It With You." This starred Melva Jean Lindsey and Paul Walker. During the fall we had a most unusual boat ride on the Lake Queen. For it was a little too cold and rainy to do exactly what we had planned. Our class indulged in many other activities which were enjoyed by all. But, as spring neared and the robin began to return, those of us who didn't keep spring fever all year 'round, got it then. However, we couldn't be lazy long, for the time soon came to give the Seniors their Prom, and we had to part with our hard-earned money. Oh, what a Prom it was. Everyone that attended said it was the best and prettiest yet. Our theme, "Stairway to the Stars," was carried out very well by our Junior class "decorators." Afterwards everyone enjoyed a breakfast at the Glass House.

Of course we were all anxious for the day to come when we could take over as Seniors, but, oh that long, long summer we had to go through before we could do so. However, that day finally arrived, and there were many proud students at Red Bank High School. We were very proud that we had stood the test and advanced this far. We tried not to trample the underclassmen underfoot, but to help them and be "a light unto their paths."

Realizing that we needed to make the very best of this, our last year, we selected Mrs. Caballero, one of Red Bank's best loved teachers, to aid Mr. Petersen as class sponsor. Working with them were our class officers, who are as follows: President—Chris Clements; Vice President—Melvin Harris; Secretary—Mabel Daniel; and Treasurer—Millis Jackson.

We wanted to make this year our best because it was our last, and we wanted our activities to be good ones as we remember them down through our lives. Some of these activities are:

Richard Johnson and Kenneth Smith were captains of the football team. Senior football players were: Richard Johnson, Kenneth Smith, Travis Billingsley, Jim McDonald, Tommy Watts, Franz Dantzler, Wayne Young, Bobby Bowling, Crawford Bean, and Calvin Sivley. With these boys leading the team we had a very good record, as they won nine games and lost only two.

Mr. Haynes sponsored the "Roar," with Bill Rutherford and Carolyn Jo Sprayberry as co-editors.

President of the Service Club was Tommy Watts. The Key Club was headed by Bill Rutherford. The Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y heads were Tommy Watts and Carolyn Jo Sprayberry. The first semester President of the National Honor Society was Sonny Johnston, and the second semester leader was Chris Clements. In its second trial year the Student Council President was Paul Walker.

Shirley Greer was elected the Class of '57's Homecoming Queen. Senior members of her court were Mary Ann McGrew, Judy Long, and Melva Jean Lindsey.

Captain of the boys' basketball team was Kenneth Smith, with Miles Springfield and Jim McDonald as co-alternates. The girls' captain was Pattye Lauper, and Judy Bush and Jane Roberson as co-alternates.

Shirley Greer and Kendra Trimble served as co-heads of the Red Bank cheerleading squad.

One of the greatest honors that could be bestowed upon a Red Bank student was given to Melva Jean Lindsey and Sonny Johnston when they were elected Mr. and Miss Red Bank of 1957.

The Class of '57 broke old tradition and established new ones when we decided to have a Class Night instead of Class Day, Coronation Day instead of Senior Day, and to create a new Senior Day which would be devoted entirely to fun.

Speakers at our commencement were: Valedictorian—Carolyn Jo Sprayberry, Salutatorian—Kendra Trimble, Faculty Representative—Joyce Trentham, and Class Representative—Sonny Johnston.

At one of our most important class meetings of the year, the following speakers were elected for Class Night and Senior Day: Historian—Travis Billingsley; Poet—Kay McMillan; Prophet—Don Hixson; Lawyer—Bill Rutherford; and Giftorians—Mary Ann McGrew and Richard Johnson.

The seniors presented "Time Out For Ginger" as the annual senior play, with Carol Lewis as the leading character, Ginger.

Our money-making projects during the year were a magazine sale and the annual Senior-Faculty basketball game.

Camp Dixie was the scene of our Senior party, where good food and good times were enjoyed by all who attended.

At the first of the year we had selected our class flower, colors, song, and motto, to be carried out at Class Night. They were as follows: Colors—pink and white, Flower—pink camellia, Song—"Graduation Day," and Motto—"If everyone would light just one little candle, what a bright world this would be."

One of the highlights of our Senior year was the annual Senior trip to Washington. All of our class was very thrilled by a special privilege which was given us. We were the first class to tour the historic spots of Virginia and to travel from Virginia to Washington by boat. This trip will always be one of the bright spots in our memories.

With these six years successfully behind us, we now look forward to the future. But in the future, the memories of our years together at Red Bank will always be with us.

Travis Billingsley, Historian

Class Prophecy of 1957

My vision of the future came to me late one night while I was working in my cabin on my famous alcohol distilling project. While I was in my stupor—pardon me, dream, I pictured myself as a scientist working for the government trying to establish distilleries on the surface of the moon (well, after all, I was working with alcohol during my dream). The time was 1972, fifteen years from now. My government project had taken me to my old home town of Chattanooga. I decided that while I was there and wasn't especially pressed for time I would do some research and find out what my old classmates were doing.

First, I decided to look up three or four of the social elite of my graduating class. I found Chris Clements, Sonny Johnston, and Paul Walker connected with a large, rapidly expanding and successful collection agency. Sonny drives the truck, Paul picks up the containers, and Chris tosses the empty containers back down from the truck to Paul, etc., on to the next house. Carolyn Sprayberry was also connected with this firm. She was head of "The Department of Sanitary Cleansing and Sterilization of Employee Uniforms."

I returned to my hotel room and turned on the television. The particular set I watched was a development of electronic experts Fred Hamby and Clyde Pearson. The picture appeared in 3-D and full color. Before long a program was televised entitled "THE GARY SANDERS SHOW." After much pomp and fanfare, Gary appeared before the mike and announced, "Ready kids, 1, 2, 3, — hokus, pokus, Vid—e—o—kus!! At this point he began to pass out candy, ice cream and mixed drinks. Also, at this point I changed channels.

Just as the newly switched channel came into focus I heard an announcer say, "and now we present our famous guest star." The audience went wild. It was the popular hillbilly recording artist Stanley Bazemore. After this program came the series "Football Forecasts" narrated and directed by Travis Taylor, the television name of Travis Billingsley.

I turned off the T.V. and went to a nearby book shelf. I picked up the volume, "How to be a Respected and Well-Loved Member of your Community," by co-authors Don Nichols and Grady Gant. The authors may be contacted at the following address: Cell Block No. 6, Alcatraz Island, California. Next to their book stood the famous classic by William T. Rutherford, "Ten Easy Ways to Drive Psychology Teachers Mad."

I left my hotel room long enough to purchase a newspaper, the "Robert McCrary Gazette." I noticed that Jerry Martin was Editor; Larry Craig, Associate Editor; Jack Miller, Associate to the Associate Editor; Jack Shrader, Consultant; and Kenneth Shannen, Proofreader. The Gazette seemed filled with news. Edith Harrison was engaged to a wealthy contractor, Jerry Sitten. However, at the last minute it appears that Sitten fell from the roof of one of his unfinished buildings. Roving reporter, Rex (Hawkeye) Morris, reported that local authorities had captured two raving maniacs. Wayne Young was taken in a huge net while screaming, "I am Elvis, my name is Presley." Patsy Alexander was taken into custody while repeatedly mumbling, "My name is not Wally Cox—My name is not Wally Cox." Another report by Morris stated that prize-fighter Richard B. (Bone-crusher) Bird had been jailed for breaking the nose of basketball player Mousy Miles Springfield. Springfield had allegedly insulted Bird.

I then glanced at the literary section and found that several of our Seniors had become authors. For instance, Barbara Hatfield has published a novel, "PRIDE AND PRUDENCE"; Barbara York, "MARINE WEDDINGS"; Ward Huffine, a technical journal, "THE EFFECTS OF FOOD COLORING ON HAIR"; Bill Sanderlin, "SUCCESSFUL CAR WRECKING"; Carolyn Yates, "WHY I PLAYED THE FIELD IN HIGH SCHOOL"; Carole Jordan, "HOW TO BE CUTE, SWEET AND MENTALLY RETARDED"; and, last but not least, Wayne (Radar) Condra has published, "HOW TO REMAIN SLIM, SLENDER AND GRACEFUL DURING ADOLESCENCE."

Reviewing the last pages of the paper, I found that George Demopolis, successful restaurateur, had just borrowed $150,000.00 from Banker Ronny Adams for the expansion of his new restaurant. Noted philanthropist and manufacturer, Joe Brown, has just donated $10,000.00 to a foundation sponsored by James McGrew for the prevention of juvenile delinquency.

The stock market column showed that shares in Bales and Blevins oil had risen ten percent.

The following day I looked up other of my former classmates. Raymond Frizzel had opened a speed shop and employed Bobby Bowling as an employee. Crawford Bean had married wealthy and retired abroad. Lark Gifford was an admiral in the navy. Jimmy Hudson and James Jolly are captains of ships in his fleet. Benny Dupree and William Hale are giving lectures on Basketball. Richard Johnson lectures on sports in general, and Harold Lee lectures on girls he has known. Doyle Walker is now located at the Psychology Department at U.T. However, he is not studying, he is being studied. Melvin Harris is a replacement for a teacher at Red Bank High School who was turned out to pasture. Jerry Ryan is a Tennessee Senator. His bill to abolish compulsory study of history in high schools has been passed. Marcia Kay Emerson has become a missionary and is stationed in Lower Slobbovia, lending encouragement to the local yokels. Mary Alloway has been employed as Mr. Shaw's Secretary. Harriet Martin lost all degree of sanity. She now lives in the mountains where she raises dogs and goats and writes accordion music. Pat Anderson is president of a temperance union, and Franz Dantzler is labor leader for the union of circus midgets.

Many of my former classmates have gone into show biz. Accordionist, Kay McMillan, bought Lawrence Welk's orchestra. Melva Jean Lindsey is currently appearing as a replacement for Margaret Truman on T.V. Mabel Daniel is an opera singer—a diva—she just took a dive at the Metropolitan Opera. Gail Terwilliger is a character actress in Broadway shows. Judy Long has become a suggestive dancer. Billy Thompson, believe it or not, has become a ballet dancer. Tim McKenzie, author of science fiction books, is presently occupied at Millis Jackson's movie studio directing a science fiction picture. Joyce Trentham has become a pianist. The candles of Liberace have been replaced with a pool of high octane gasoline which she pours generously on top of her piano. She specializes in hot jazz. Martha Griffith and Pat Parnell have excelled in the fields of commercial art and illustration. Sue Leath sells school supplies, pencils, paper, pens, bubble gum, and tacks.

Johnnie Jones is a lab technician for the Haynes and Hill organization that is trying to determine why physics teachers are the way they are. Anna Jane Archer and Pat Barton founded a medical research laboratory.

Joy Workman, aside from being a famous amateur golfer, is also a business woman. The Workman's grease trap plumbing and cleaning company. Nancy Jo Barger is a sanitation engineer, or, if you prefer, plumber for the company. Kendra Trimble is also employed here.

Juanita Draper and Carol Lewis manage a bait and tackle store at the lake. Judy Harcrow is an expert on being profitably unemployed.

Beverly Ashley operates an all girl garage. Employed there are Hilda Woosley, Pat Pody, Ann Roberson, Jane Roberson, Charlene Spence, Norma Tucker, Joyce McKinney, Nelly Pledger, Barbara Lewis, and Earlene Gadd. Councilman Tommy Watts and his wife, former Shirley Greer, brought one of their Cadillacs to the Ashley garage to have a few parts replaced. They got back from the garage a jeep station wagon. This garage is not AAA approved.

Evelyn Gray has taken Betty Crocker's place at General Mills. Tommy Williams amuses himself by feeding her recipes to the ducks at city park and watching them sink.

Doris Wells has become a clinical psychologist, and Joyce Waller, Patsy Kellis, Gail Jackson, Jo Ann Johnson, Bob Vaughn, Gwendolyn Hartman, and Margaret Beene are permanent patients.

Sally Been, Peggy Edmundson, Joyce Fox and Mazie Massengill have opened a jewelry store selling rubies, emeralds, diamonds and chips from broken coke bottles. Jane Hart sweeps up the remains of broken bottles.

Patty Lauper and Charlene Walker teach at the Bush and McGrew school of ballet. Kenneth Smith doesn't do much of anything, frankly, he is a bum. Ted Oakes and Larry Swanson act as his traveling aides.

Wilma Pickett teaches at Lone Oaks school, and Doris Spangler teaches chemistry at Baylor.

Mary Alice Cannon is touring Europe on the royalties she receives from her mother's cook books. Calvin Sivley, it is reported, is the leader of an underground syndicate in the crooked bubble gum machine racket. Linda Bragg and Jo Ann Evans operate a plant that manufactures pea-shooter ammunition, Bragg and Evans Spitballs, Inc. James E. McDonald, Merwyn Mann, Gail Barker, Norma Brown, and Dorothy Bice are attending U.T. James McDonald is working on his doctorate in advanced philosophy. Judy Coleman is now manager of the Memorial Auditorium. She caters particularly to jigg shows, Little Richard, Fats Domino, etc. Peggy Moring is having financial difficulties. She is trying to collect money for the annual advertisements she sold for the 57 year book. Peter F. McKinley (sometimes known to his co-executives as Mac) is president of the local cotton mill.

Our prophecy has a tragic note. Charlie Adams and Jerrel Martin, air force pilots, agreed to go on a test rocket flight. It seems that an obscure Red Bank physics teacher worked out the flight plan of the rocket mathematically and, well—it seems that neither the rocket, nor Charlie, nor Jarrel, have been seen or heard of since. A moment's reverence please.

Respectfully,

DON HIXSON

Class Will

- We, the Senior Class of Red Bank High leave the following as our last will and testament.
- Article I. To the Juniors we will our title of "Outlaws and Disrespectful, Insubordinate Brats."
- Article II. To the whole student body we leave our everlasting love for Red Bank High School and the wonderful times we have had here.
- Article III. To the faculty we leave our sincere appreciation for all the time and effort they have spent with us.
- Article IV. Individuals do hereby bequeath the following.
- We, Benny Dupree, Jack Miller, and Millis Jackson, leave a loaded revolver to Mr. Cox for his own personal use.
- We, Linda Bragg and Margaret Bean leave our ability for getting caught talking in history class to some quiet junior.
- I, Harriett Martin, leave two inches of my hips to Ann Morrison or Linda Daughtery.
- I, George Dimopoulos, leave my "way with women" to Nick Bratcher.
- I, Patsy Alexander, will my diet book to Nancy Dowlen.
- I, James Jolly, am just glad to leave this place.
- I, Mary Alice Cannon, will not leave Joe Birdwell or my red Ford to anyone.
- I, Jo Ann Johnson, will my ability to fly paper airplanes in bookkeeping to Eddie Trentham and Mac Henry (provided they won't offend Miss Robertson).
- We, Doris Spangler, Charline Spence, and Gail Jackson, leave our valuable book on "How to Get a Diamond in Ten Easy Lessons" to any ambitious junior who is willing to work at it.
- I, Joy Workman, bequeath my golf clubs to Tommy McClain Hogan.
- I, Ann Roberson, will my admiration for tall boys to Jean Bible.
- I, Clyde Pearson, will my out-standing knowledge in electronics to anyone who can fix my radio.
- I, Joyce McKenney, will my love for Mr. Shaw's ties to all you lucky juniors.
- I, Joyce Fox, will my natural blonde hair to Faye Cook.
- I, Jane Hart, leave my dignity to Valerie Bohannon.
- We, Beverly Ashley and Earlene Gadd, will our gift of gab in bookkeeping to Jean Howard and Kay Farr.
- I, Billy Ray Thompson, leave my share of Gregory's Bar-B-Que to Jerry Harris.
- I, William Hale, bequeath my ability to study to Richard Dunn.
- I, Jimmy Hudson, leave my fast running Ford and my straight "A's" in school to Jeanette Maynor.
- I, Paul Walker, bequeath my love for Mr. Shaw's sport coats to all you cool cats.
- I, Marcia Kay Emerson, leave my demure expression to Gail Higdon.
- We, Jim McGrew and Grady Gant, will our 4th period smoking session to Jimmy Monsier.
- I, Norma Gay Brown, will my gym shoes to whoever got them at the first of the year.
- I, Gary Sanders, leave my reputation as a wolf to John Battle.
- We, Jo Ann Evans and Edythe Harrison, will our gift of gab to Jean Clemons.
- I, Merwyn Mann, leave my ability to loaf and my A in gym to Donald Deakins.
- I, Robert Haynes, leave my "freshman women" to no one!!
- I, Tommy Watts, will my bar-bells to Mac Henry.
- I, Carole Jordan, will my fondness for Connecticut Yankees to anyone fortunate enough to meet one.
- I, Mabel Daniel, bequeath my most-lady-like-walk to Bunny Fussell.
- I, Sonny Johnston, will my blackboard jungle boots to Monty (Fluffo) Anderson.
- I, Wayne (Radar) Condra, leave my ability to skip without the teachers knowing about it to Jerry Harris.
- I, Jo Ann Evans, will my freckles, and curly hair to Sarah Jones.
- I, Ronnie Adams, leave my night owl habits to anyone who can stay awake long enough to keep them.
- I, Hilda Woosley, bequeath my natural blonde hair to Faye Cook!
- I, Mary Ann McGrew, will my ability to hook football captains to Jeanette Hartman.
- I, Martha Griffith, will my dancing abilities to Betty Bush.
- We, Nancy Jo Barger and Mac McKinley, leave our ability to get along to Lynn DeLuce and Jerry Walker.
- I, Sue Leath, leave my 3rd and 4th period Bookstore job to Sandra Barker.
- I, Judy Coleman, pass on the dirty boogie to Linda Young.
- I, Joyce Waller, leave my wardrobe of letter sweaters to Helen Roberts.
- I, Doris Wells, will my few words to Virginia Cain.
- I, Barbara York, will my place on the Blue and White Staff to Ann Clifton.

I, Wayne Young, bequeath my "Elvis" haircut to Mr. Cox.
 I, Peggy Edmondson, will my vocal abilities to "OX" Vandergriff.
 I, Gwendolyn Hartman, bequeath my typing eraser to the janitor.
 I, Dorothy Ann Bice, leave quietly.
 I, Charlotte Marler, leave my friendship for the teachers.
 I, Wilma Pickett, will my natural curly hair to Judy Riggs.
 I, Nellie Pledger, leave my locker to the junior who will get a pick-up truck and clean it out.
 I, Bill Sandelin, will my ability to drive "without hands" to Jimmy "the Cat" Nash.
 I, Jerry Sitton, will my sleeping pills for use in English to John Acuff.
 I, Shirley Thomas, leave my net for catching men to Catherine Mabee.

 I, Larry Swanson, leave my famous phrase "What is your phone number" to Don Seagle.
 I, Calvin Sivley, leave as soon as I can swipe a diploma.
 I, Don Nichols, will my Central Letter sweater to the Red Bank Letterman's Club.
 I, Rex Morris, leave my title of "Sexy Remy" to Buddy Kennedy.
 I, Peggy Morring, will my "affair" with Bob Kettle to Frankie Davis.
 I, Kay McMillan, will my roving eyes and ways to Julia Slack.
 We, Mary Alloway, Bunk Jones, Evelyn Gray, and Gail Terwilliger, the wives of the Senior class leave our cookbooks and brooms to some ambitious underclassmen.
 I, Tim McKenzie, will my knitting to La Vron Bell.
 I, Patsy Kellis, will my aloftness to Andrea Moore.
 I, Johnie Jones, will my "A" in English to next years "D" students.
 I, Shirley Greer, leave my crown as Homecoming Queen to some deserving junior.
 I, Lark Gifford, leave my permanent lunch dismissal to Mr. Petersen.
 I, Earlene Gadd, will my ear for gossip to Pat Pinson.
 I, Bobby McCrary, leave by the back door.
 I, Carol Lewis, bequeath my football suit to J. E. Carroll.
 I, Frantz Dantzler, leave my height to tall Paul Peak.
 I, Chris Clements, will my title as Chris Cox to Gene Fairbanks.
 I, Judy Bush, will my worn, tattered, and battered No. 7 basketball shirt to anyone who can wear it.
 I, Crawford Bean, leave all my broken bones to Jim Vandergriff.
 I, Stanley Bazemore, bequeath my winning smile to Gene Workman.
 I, Pat Barton, will my worn out chewing gum to anyone or anything except a wastebasket.
 I, Gail Barker, leave a leash for Mrs. Lyon's dog.

From wind to wind, earth has one tale to tell;
All other sounds are dulled and drowned and lost,
In this one cry,
"Farewell."

I, Larry Bales, leave my White Owl cigars and pipe to Robert Brown.
 I, Pat Anderson, leave my talent for passing studying to Beverly Pickering who may study without passing.
 We, Travis Billingsley and Carolyn Yates, will our corner at the top of the auditorium steps to Winfred Billingsley and Maxine Swingle.
 I, Don Acuff, will my key chain and letter sweater to my brother, Larry.
 I, Jerry Martin, will my white buck shoes to Charles Hawkins.
 I, Eddy Maddux, leave all of me to just part of Chris Crabtree.
 I, Melva Jean Lindsey, will leave just in time to join the Marines.
 I, Pattye Lauper, will my stormy love affairs to Bobbye Ann Spencer.
 I, Ward Huffine, leave my brother, who will be the last of the Huffine boys.
 I, Carolyn Jo Sprayberry, bequeath my Signal Mountain Taxi Service to the Yellow Cab Company.
 I, Bill Rutherford, finally being relieved of all responsibilities, duties, and studies shout for joy — until college begins.

Signed, sealed, published and declared as and for their last will and testament by the Class of 1957, the above named testators, in the presence of them and of each other, have subscribed our names hereto as witnesses on the 18th day of May and year last aforesaid.
